7. Experience will be counted after completion of essential academic qualification(s).
8. Experience claimed by the applicant has to be supported by documentary proof like experience certificate with duties/ job / work undertaken, testimonials from the concerned reporting Officer/ Establishment / Administration of the concerned office / department. Documents like offer of appointment, appointment order, posting order, salary slip or any other certificates/documents without date of joining and relieving etc., will not be considered as valid documents in claims of experience.
9. In case of any dispute/ambiguity that may occur in the process of selection, the decision of NCPOR shall be final.
10. The prescribed essential qualifications are minimum and mere possession of the same does not entitle candidates to be called for written examination. If the number of applications received in response to advertisement is large, it will not be convenient or possible for the Selection Board to conduct examination for all those candidates. So, the Centre may restrict the number of candidates to be called for selection process and subsequent stage(s), as applicable, to a reasonable limit of based on academic performance and /or relevant experience for the post prescribed in the advertisement as per the specific requirement of the Centre and/or any other benchmark decided by a committee constituted to screen the applications. The Centre reserves the right to restrict the number of candidates at any stage of selection to a reasonable limit on the basis of qualifications and experience higher than the minimum prescribed in the advertisement. No correspondence will be entertained with candidates who are not called for the selection process / subsequent stage(s). The shortlist will be placed on the website of NCPOR - www.ncpor.res.in.
11. In case, the number of applications received is high, the Scrutiny/Short listing Committee may adopt additional/higher criteria for short listing. The shortlisted applicants will be called for the selection process and subsequent stage(s), as applicable, on qualifying the same as per decision of the Committee.
12. NCPOR will have full discretion to fix separate minimum criteria for short listing and criteria for examination for each post or category of candidates.
13. Candidates working in Government/Public Sector Undertakings/ Autonomous bodies should upload 'No Objection Certificate' and/or produce the requisite 'No Objection Certificate' from their employer at the time of written examination.
14. Candidates must enclose valid supportive documents viz, experience certificate, caste certificate, disability certificate, non-creamy layer certificate in case of OBC etc, in support of their claim.
15. Canvassing in any form and /or bringing any influence, political or otherwise will be treated as disqualification of candidature. No interim correspondence/inquiry will be entertained.

16. No TA will be paid for attending any stages of the selection process. The candidates need to make their own stay arrangements.
17. Director, NCPOR has the right to change in number of posts or cancel the recruitment process at any stage, without assigning any reason thereof.
18. Any discrepancies found in the certificates will attract the disqualification of application(s). Non production of original certificates at the time of written examination will also make the candidate disqualified. No travel reimbursement will be made to such candidates. Candidate's currently working in any other organization need to provide the proof of their current employment with a service/experience certificate from the employer. Appointment order, pay slips, etc. will not be considered as proof of current employment/experience.
